Fees and other costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

The above text is prescribed by law. The fees specified in this Booklet are the standard fees that apply to Mercer Business Super. Your Employer may have negotiated lower fees.

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole.

Other fees, such as activity fees, advice fees for personal advice and insurance fees, may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice or insurance chosen by you. Entry fees and exit fees cannot be charged.

Taxes, insurance fees and other costs relating to insurance are set out in another part of this document.

You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

- 1 If your account balance for a product offered by the superannuation entity is less than $6,000 at the end of the entity's income year, certain fees and costs charged to you in relation to administration and investment are capped at 3% of the account balance. Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded.

- 3 Investment fees and costs includes an amount of between 0.00% and 0.17% for performance fees. The calculation basis for this amount is set out under 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' section of this Booklet.
- 4 Investment costs and transaction costs are based on the financial year ending 30 June 2025. The actual amounts will change from year to year and may be more or less than the amounts shown. For details of the calculation basis for these amounts, see 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in this section of the Booklet.
- 5 See 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in this section of the Booklet for further details.

Your Employer may have negotiated different asset-based administration fees for your Plan to those shown in the PDS and this Booklet. Your Employer may make additional contributions to meet or reimburse the cost of some of these fees. These arrangements are between your Employer and the relevant/applicable employees and may cease at any time. You will pay the full amount of these fees from your super account balance if your Employer stops meeting these fees. If applicable, the specific fees and costs that apply to your Plan are set out in your Welcome letter.

Administration fees and costs

Administration fees and costs relate to the administration and operation of Mercer Super (see the 'Defined fees' section of this Booklet) and include:

- An asset-based administration fee
- An estimated expense allowance
- Costs deducted from the member reserve.

Asset-based administration fee and crediting additional units

For all investment options except the Mercer Direct investment option, we deduct a standard asset-based administration fee of 0.15% per annum (or 0.10% per annum for each Mercer SmartPath option) from each investment option before the unit price is determined.

Your Employer may have negotiated different asset-based administration fees for your Plan to those shown in the PDS and this Booklet. Your Employer may make additional contributions to meet or reimburse the cost of some of these fees. These arrangements are between your employer and the relevant/applicable employees and may cease at any time. You will need to pay the full cost of these fees from your super account balance if your Employer stops meeting or reimbursing these fees. If applicable, the specific fees and costs that apply to your Plan are set out in your Welcome letter.

If the asset-based administration fee applicable to all or part of your super account balance is less than the standard fee, we credit additional units monthly (at the end of each month) to your super account. The amount of additional units will be based on the difference between the standard asset-based administration fee deducted and the asset-based administration fee applicable to you as described in the Fees and costs summary table.

We allocate any additional units in proportion to the amount you have invested in each investment option (excluding any balance in Mercer Direct).

Mercer Direct – asset-based administration fee

For the Mercer Direct investment option, the asset-based administration fee is generally deducted on the last day of the month from your super account balance. This deduction is allocated in proportion to the amount you have invested in each investment option (excluding Mercer Direct).

Estimated expense allowance

The trustee has the right to reimburse itself from the assets of Mercer Super. These reimbursements are for actual outgoings reasonably incurred with the running of Mercer Super. The trustee is also entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of Mercer Super if it incurs any liabilities, losses, costs and expenses in administering Mercer Super. See 'Trustee's indemnity' in the 'Other key information' section of this Booklet for more details about this right of indemnity.

The estimated expense allowance is included in the administration fees and costs of the relevant investment option (as set out in the 'Fees and costs summary' table) and paid by members by way of an adjustment to the unit price, reducing the investment performance of the relevant option.

If you are invested in the Mercer Direct investment option, the estimated expense allowance is generally calculated and deducted on the last day of each month from your super account balance (in accordance with your investment strategy for future contributions). This fee is calculated as follows:

Applicable annual expense allowance times your balance in the Mercer Direct investment option (on the last day of the month) divided by 12.

The estimated expense allowance varies from year to year reflecting the actual expenses incurred. Therefore, it is not possible to provide a precise figure for the estimated expense allowance for investment options as they are not known until the end of the financial year.

The actual expense allowances will be provided in the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement) for the relevant financial year.

Costs deducted from the member reserve

The trustee currently pays certain administration costs, which relate to the administration of Mercer Super, from the member reserve. These costs are not charged directly to your super account but have reduced the member reserve balance held by Mercer Super.

The size of the member reserve is reported each year in the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement).

Investment fees and costs

The following information applies to all investment options except the Mercer Direct investment option.

Investment fees and costs relate to expenses incurred either directly or indirectly for the investment of the assets of Mercer Super. They apply to each investment option and typically vary depending on the type of assets the option invests in and the management style (for example, active or passive).

Investment fees are the fees payable to the trustee for the exercise of care and expertise relating to the investment of the assets of Mercer Super and generally include the fees payable to the underlying investment managers for most asset classes (including performance fees).

Each investment option has associated investment costs that are incurred by the underlying investment vehicles into which Mercer Super invests. They may include but are not limited to:

- Investment fees for certain asset classes, such as investments in direct/unlisted real assets, (asset classes such as, but not limited to, property, infrastructure, private equity and private debt)
- Any expenses charged by the underlying investment vehicles or manager of those vehicles
- Over-the-counter derivative costs.

For each investment option, the estimated investment fees and costs are set out in the 'Breakdown of certain fees and costs' table on the following pages. They are estimates only based on the actual fees and costs for the financial year ending 30 June 2025 and include performance fees. Where an investment option has not been available for the previous 12 months or actuals are not available, we will use an estimate based on the relevant period.

The actual investment fees and costs are determined at the end of each financial year and are advised in the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement).

Information about investment fees and costs may change from time to time and if it is not materially adverse, will be made available online at mercersuper.com.au/pds.

A paper copy of any updated information will be given or an electronic copy made available on request at no charge by calling the Helpline. We will advise you directly of any material changes as required by law.

Past fees and costs may not be a reliable indicator of future fees and costs.

Performance fees

The trustee does not directly charge any performance fees. However, performance fees may be charged by underlying investment vehicles or managers of those vehicles, and these are included in the investment fees and costs.

Performance fees are reflected in the unit price of the underlying investment vehicle and accordingly form part of the investment fees and costs of the relevant investment option.

Underlying investment vehicles or managers that charge a performance fee will generally only apply those fees when performance meets or exceeds an agreed target. Accordingly, performance fees arise when higher returns, relative to a specified target for a particular investment manager, are achieved.

Where applicable, performance fees are based on an average for the five-year period ending 30 June 2025 (unless the option has been available for a shorter inception period or the actuals are not available for the most recent financial year in which case we use a reasonable estimate) as shown in the tables on the following pages.

Performance fees are based upon the latest information provided by the underlying investment managers, as well as historical expenses and performance fees for the actual assets held by Mercer Super as at the effective date of your Plan's PDS.

Costs deducted from the member reserve

The trustee currently pays certain investment costs, which relate to the investment of assets of Mercer Super, from the member reserve. These costs are not charged directly to your super account but have reduced the member reserve balance held by Mercer Super.

The size of the member reserve is reported each year in the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement).

Transaction costs

The following information applies to all investment options except the Mercer Direct investment option.

Transaction costs are the costs associated with trading to manage the investment strategy for each investment option.

Transaction costs include:

- Brokerage
- Settlement costs (including custody costs)
- Clearing costs
- Stamp duty on an investment transaction
- Buy-sell spreads less any costs recouped by the underlying investment vehicles.

We don't currently charge a buy-sell fee for any of our investment options, so no portion of the transaction costs is recoverable in this way. No part of any transaction cost is paid to the trustee or any investment manager as a fee and such costs are not subject to GST.

For each of the investment options, the estimated transaction costs are generally based on transaction costs for the financial year ending 30 June 2025. Where an investment option has not been available for the previous 12 months or actuals are not available, we will use an estimate based on the relevant period.

The estimated transaction costs for each investment option are set out in the 'Breakdown of certain fees and costs' table on the following pages.

The actual transaction costs for each investment option are determined at the end of each financial year and will be advised in the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement).

Breakdown of certain fees and costs table

This table only shows a breakdown of the asset-based administration fee, investment fees and costs, and transaction costs as a percentage per annum of your super account balance for each investment option. Other fees and costs also apply – see the 'Fees and costs summary' table earlier in the 'Fees and other costs' section. A description of these fees and costs is provided on the previous pages. These costs may change from time to time, and you should refer to mercersuper.com.au/pds for any changes after the publication of this document.

  - Costs paid from the member reserve estimated to be 0.03% per annum of Mercer Super assets.
- 2 Investment costs and transaction costs are based on the financial year ending 30 June 2025. The actual amounts will change from year to year and may be more or less than the amounts shown. For details of the calculation basis for these amounts, see 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in this section of the Booklet.
- 3 Where applicable, performance fees are based on an average for the five-year period ending 30 June 2025 (or a shorter period if the option has an inception period less than five years) and are included in investment fees and costs. If the actuals are not available for the most recent financial year, we may use a reasonable estimate for that year.
- 4 This amount may be different for your Plan as your Employer may have negotiated different asset-based administration fees or may make additional contributions to meet or reimburse the cost of some of these fees.
- 5 If the balance of your super account (excluding any balance in the Mercer Direct investment option) is over $500,000, then the asset-based administration fee for your balance over $500,000 is 0.00%. The asset-based administration fee for any balance invested in Mercer Direct will be 0.10% per annum, regardless of the amount invested.
- ^ The combined maximum investment fee, expense allowance and administration fee shall not exceed 4% per annum for these investment options. All other investment options will not exceed 2.5% per annum.
- ** Other fees and costs may apply if you are invested in the Mercer Direct investment option including: a brokerage fee and a management fee for exchange traded funds. For more details see the 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in this section of this Booklet.

Past fees and costs may not be a reliable indicator of future fees and costs.

Updated information

The information in this Booklet, the PDS and the other incorporated booklets that are part of the PDS are current as at the date of publication. Information in this Booklet may change from time to time and if the change is not materially adverse, will be made available online at mercersuper.com.au/pds.

A paper copy of any updated information will be given or an electronic copy made available on request at no charge by calling the Helpline.

We will advise you directly of any material changes as required by law.

Other fees and costs

The following fees may be additional to the fees and costs shown in the Fees and costs summary table and will depend on the nature of the advice, activity or insurance chosen by you.

Intra-fund and advice fees

As a Mercer Super member, you have access to Simple Super Advice via the Mercer Helpline Advice team. These financial advisers are licenced and appropriately authorised to provide you with limited financial advice on your contributions, insurance and investment options, in regard to your Mercer Super account. This is an over-the-phone service provided at no additional cost. Fees for limited financial advice are included in the administration fees and costs described in the 'Fees and costs summary' table.

You also have access to our digital advice and support tools which are available online at no extra cost.

- e-Advice: Access personalised advice on investment options and growing your super. This advice tool helps you to understand which Mercer Super investment options may be right for you, or how to give your super the best chance to grow before retiring.
- Retirement Income Simulator: Designed to help you visualise what your retirement income could look like, how long it might last and how adding even a little extra to your super could make a difference in the long term.

You may also seek comprehensive personal financial advice for your specific circumstances for a fee.

The part of your advice that is related to your super account in Mercer Super, may be paid from your super account balance. If you would like to have fees for advice deducted from your super account, you will need to provide written consent to us via our Advice Fee Deduction form, available at mercersuper.com.au. Trustee limits apply. Any advice fees you pay from your Mercer Super account will reduce your super account balance.

Find out more about financial advice services at mercersuper.com.au/advice or call the Helpline. You can also choose your own Financial Adviser that is external to Mercer Super. Externally Licensed Financial Planners must be registered with Mercer Super prior to any fee deductions being allowed.

Family law fees

If your super is subject to an agreement or court order that splits your super between you and your former spouse, a charge of $541 for each benefit split will apply. The fee is generally split equally between you and your former spouse.

To find out more about splitting your super under family law, visit the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia website at fcfcoa.gov.au/fl

Insurance fees

If you have insurance cover, the costs are deducted monthly from your super account. See your Welcome letter and the relevant Insurance booklet for the insurance premiums applying for your Plan. Your Employer may meet the cost of some or all of your insurance cover through an additional contribution or reimbursement. These arrangements are between your employer and the relevant/applicable employees and may cease at any time. You will pay the full amount of these costs from your super account balance if your Employer stops meeting the cost of some or all of your insurance cover.

Mercer Direct fees

The fees in this section only apply to members who are invested in the Mercer Direct investment option. They are in addition to those listed in the 'Fees and costs summary' table and only apply to members who are invested in the relevant investment type.

Type of fee	Amount <sup>1</sup>	Details
Brokerage fee	0.09225%, with a minimum fee of $11.99.	A brokerage fee applies only to members who have invested in shares or ETFs within Mercer Direct. A brokerage fee applies to each trade and will be deducted from your transaction account at the time the trade is processed. For example, if you invested in Mercer Direct and purchased $90,000 worth of shares, the brokerage fee charged and deducted from your transaction account would be $83.03 (i.e. 0.09225% of $90,000).
Management fee for Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs)	This fee depends on the ETFs you choose to invest in.	Fees incurred by the ETF, including management fees, custody costs and other expenses, may be deducted from the returns of the underlying securities in the ETF. You should refer to the ETF provider's disclosure documents for information on the fees and costs that may apply.

Fee changes

Indexation of fees

Family law fees and the Mercer Direct administration fees are indexed annually on 1 January to generally reflect Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings.

The Mercer Direct administration fee is indexed in increments of $5 only where the cumulative increase since the previous indexation is $4 or more.

Fee increases

The trustee has the right to change the amount of fees at any time, without your prior consent. Where there is an increase in fees, we will give you at least 30 days prior written notice. The PDS and this Booklet will also be updated.

For other changes (that are not fee increases) and where the change is not materially adverse, the change will be detailed on the website mercersuper.com.au/pds.

GST

The GST disclosures in this Booklet are of a general nature only.

GST is not payable on units purchased in Mercer Super. However, fees payable in respect of the management of Mercer Super are subject to GST, as described below.

GST applies to all fees charged to Mercer Super. Generally, Mercer Super cannot claim full input tax credits in respect of these fees but will usually be entitled to reduced input tax credits (currently up to 75% of the GST paid) in respect of some of these fees. As a result, the fees payable to us including GST are higher than those disclosed in this Booklet.

Any fees payable to us as set out in this Booklet approximate the net cost of these fees (after GST) and assume that reduced input tax credits are available.

The brokerage fee for the Mercer Direct investment option set out in this Booklet is shown including GST.

Tax and your super

The 'How super is taxed' section later in this Booklet provides a summary of how your super is taxed. For more details about tax and your super, see our Fact Sheets.

Refer to the Mercer Direct Member Guide for more information about taxes on amounts invested in the Mercer Direct investment option.

You can download the Fact Sheets and Mercer Direct Member Guide at mercersuper.com.au/pds.

Our fund is entitled to a tax benefit on gross administration fees and costs, investment fees and costs, and insurance premiums paid to our service providers.

The tax benefit on administration fees and costs paid to our service providers goes directly to the member reserve which is to be used for the benefit of members.

Any tax benefit on investment fees and costs is passed on to members in determining the unit price members receive for their investment option(s).

The tax benefit on insurance premiums is passed directly to relevant members through tax rebates credited to their account.

We disclose all fees, costs and premiums in our PDS and incorporated booklets as the gross amount before any tax benefit is applied, so the actual net amount that you pay may be less than the figures shown.

Further information

The trustee does not retain for its own use any profit made on the netting of transactions (even though the governing documents permit it to do so) and has no intention to do so in the future.

The trustee may retain for its own use, any interest earned on contributions tax from the date it deducts an amount for this tax to the date it pays it to the ATO.

Any interest earned on application monies received in Mercer Super's holding account will not be payable to you, either upon allocation to your account or upon return to the originator of the payment. It will be retained by the trustee for our benefit or paid into Mercer Super for the benefit of members.

Transaction costs

Transaction costs are costs associated with the sale and purchase of assets of the superannuation entity other than costs that are recovered by the superannuation entity charging buy-sell spreads.

All Fact Sheets are available at mercERSUPER.COM.AU/pds.

What your Employer puts into your super

By law, your Employer generally has to pay a minimum amount into super called the Superannuation Guarantee (SG).

SG is currently calculated as a percentage of your Ordinary Time Earnings (OTE), where OTE is capped at a maximum contribution base. The maximum contribution base is indexed on each 1 July (refer to ato.gov.au).

Since 1 July 2025, the SG rate has been 12% of OTE.

OTE is generally your remuneration which includes regular salary or wages, salary sacrifice superannuation contributions, any over-award payments, shift allowances, bonuses and commissions. It generally does not include overtime payments or benefits subject to fringe benefits tax.

From 1 July 2026, employers will need to pay their employees' SG on Qualifying Earnings (QE) at the same time as their salary or wages. This includes OTE and will also include other types of earnings. For more information refer to ato.gov.au.

The SG is the minimum amount the employer must provide for each employee. Your Employer may contribute more than the minimum SG amount.

There are some circumstances where your Employer is not required to pay the SG.

Visit the ATO website for further information about SG contributions, including the maximum contribution base (ato.gov.au).

What you may put into your super

You can put extra money into super, over and above the contributions your Employer makes. You can do this to save more for retirement or to save for a deposit under the FHSSS.

There are limits on the level of contributions that have concessional tax rates and some contributions cannot be accepted unless we have your Tax File Number (TFN).

Any contributions must be preserved until you meet a condition of release, such as reaching age 65, ceasing an employment arrangement after age 60 or retiring after reaching age 60. Early release may be permitted in certain circumstances, such as under the FHSSS.

Concessional contributions

Concessional contributions include employer contributions such as SG contributions and salary sacrifice contributions and also include personal (voluntary) contributions for which you claim a tax deduction. These contributions are subject to a super contribution tax of 15% which we pay to the ATO. Members on incomes (as defined in legislation for this purpose) of more than $250,000 are also subject to an additional tax of 15% on some or all of their concessional contributions. The ATO assesses this tax separately and will issue you with an assessment notice if applicable.

How to make a voluntary concessional contribution

You can ask your Employer to salary sacrifice some of your wages directly into your super. The amount you choose to have added to your Employer super contributions comes out of your pre-tax salary, reducing your taxable income. As a result, the salary sacrificed contribution is generally taxed at a concessional super rate which may be lower than your personal income tax rate.

Any salary sacrificing contributions your Employer makes on your behalf will be on top of their compulsory super contribution.

If you'd like to set up a salary sacrifice arrangement, please speak with your Employer directly.

If your Employer does not accommodate salary sacrifice arrangements, you may be able to make an after-tax contribution to your super account and claim a tax deduction on it (see 'How to make a non-concessional contribution' in this section of the Booklet).

The contribution that you claim as a tax deduction will count towards your concessional contributions cap. You must claim the tax deduction by completing a Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction for personal super contributions form available at ato.gov.au. This form must be provided to us, and you must receive confirmation from us, before the earlier of:

- The date you submit your tax return
- The end of the following financial year in which the voluntary contribution was made.

Non-concessional contributions

Non-concessional (after-tax) contributions are typically contributed with money that has already been taxed. They include personal after-tax contributions for which you do not claim a tax deduction and spouse contributions.

Non-concessional contributions are not subject to a contribution tax within the fund, however additional tax may be payable if you exceed your non-concessional contributions cap.

How to make a non-concessional contribution

You may be able to make regular contributions through your Employer by direct deduction from your after-tax salary.

You can also make after tax contributions via BPAY®. If you wish to make after tax contributions, sign in to the Mercer Super website at mercersuper.com.au/login using your personal login. You can then obtain your BPAY® Biller Code and Personal Reference Number or call the Helpline for details.

® Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518.

If you wish to make a Downsizer super contribution (using the proceeds from the sale of an eligible residence), call the Helpline. A Downsizer contribution is not counted towards your non-concessional contribution cap.

You may be able to claim a tax deduction for some or all of any after tax contributions you make by completing a Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction for personal super contributions form within the prescribed time limits available at mercersuper.com.au/documents. You cannot claim a tax deduction for Downsizer contributions.

We recommend you obtain professional taxation advice before making any decisions to claim a tax deduction for contributions to your super.

We recommend you speak to a licensed, or appropriately authorised, financial adviser before choosing to contribute on a salary sacrifice basis or making any other decisions regarding contributions.

Contribution splitting

You may be able to split certain super contributions with your eligible spouse and transfer these contributions to an account in the name of your eligible spouse in a complying superannuation fund.

An eligible spouse includes:

- Your husband or wife
- Another person with whom you are in a registered relationship
- Another person who, although not legally married to you, lives with you on a genuine domestic basis in a relationship as a couple.

An eligible spouse must not have permanently retired (if past their preservation age) or reached age 65.

You will generally be able to request a contribution split of up to 85% of concessional contributions. You must also maintain an account balance in Mercer Super of at least $5,000.

You can request to split all or part of a previous financial year's contributions i.e. contributions from 1 July to 30 June, once that financial year is over. You have up to 12 months from the end of that financial year to request a contribution split. Only one split of contributions for a financial year is permitted.

Any contributions that you split will continue to be counted towards your concessional contribution limit.

Contribution splitting after transfer to the Retained category

If we transfer your super to the Retained category within your Plan, you will be able to make the same contribution split as you made in your Plan (or previous category) during the applicable financial year, as well as any new contributions. However, you can only split contributions made in the previous financial year.

If you leave Mercer Super, you can split contributions made in the financial year you leave. You will need to provide your request to split contributions to the trustee on or before the time your super is paid out, rolled over or transferred to another super fund.

Tax on contributions

Tax may be payable on super contributions made by you or on your behalf, or where those contributions exceed certain annual limits. See 'How super is taxed' in this Booklet for more information.

Consolidating your super accounts

You may rollover (consolidate) super money from other funds into Mercer Super.

If you've had other jobs, you may have multiple super accounts. You can choose to consolidate all your super accounts into your Mercer Super account. This could improve your super investment overall as you'll only be paying one set of fees and handling one set of paperwork. You should discuss the benefits of consolidating your super accounts with a licensed, or appropriately authorised, financial adviser.

To consolidate your super online, log in to your Mercer Super account at mercersuper.com.au/login and go to the 'Consolidate your super' page under 'Quick shortcuts' to search for any other super accounts you may have. Alternatively, we will help you consolidate your super over the phone. Call the Helpline if you need any help or go to mercersuper.com.au/consolidate to find out more.

Generally, there's no charge for receiving money rolled in from other funds, although you should check with your other funds to see if there are any withdrawal or fees associated with exiting (or rolling out) from other funds.

Importantly, you should also consider the impact that leaving a fund may have on any insurance cover you have, including the amount and cost of cover.

If you roll in super from an untaxed Australian public sector fund, any untaxed element of the rollover will be taxed at 15%. Tax at 15% may also apply to a component of an amount transferred from a foreign super fund, with the tax-free part treated as a non-concessional contribution.

If you roll in preserved money, it stays preserved in Mercer Super until you meet a condition of release.

When the trustee can't accept contributions

The trustee cannot accept voluntary contributions made for or by you in certain circumstances such as:

- If you have not provided your TFN and the contribution was not made by your Employer, or
- You are aged 75 or more, the contribution was not a Downsizer contribution and was not received within 28 days after the end of the month you turned 75 years of age.

If you have not met a relevant condition, any voluntary contributions received will be returned to you, or the person or organisation (including where applicable your Employer) which contributed.

SG contributions and other employer contributions required under an industrial award or agreement are not voluntary contributions and can be accepted at any time.

Spouse contributions

A spouse contribution is any after tax contribution made by your spouse to your Plan in respect of you as an eligible spouse.

Your spouse should be aware that once a spouse contribution is paid into your Plan it becomes your property and generally cannot be paid back to your spouse.

Your spouse will need to complete the Your spouse's contributions to the Mercer Super Trust form each time a spouse contribution is made. You can get copies of the form from the website mercersuper.com.au or by calling the Helpline.

We recommend that you get advice from a licensed or appropriately authorised financial adviser about how tax laws affect you, especially if you are considering making large contributions, or retiring. This is because the tax treatment of super can be complex and may change at any time.

You should also get appropriate advice while you build your super.

Paying your benefits

This section explains some of the government regulations about the payment of your super benefit. For more information, see the Accessing Your Super Fact Sheet available from mercersuper.com.au/pds. This Fact Sheet includes details about conditions for accessing preserved or restricted non-preserved super.

Super and preservation

Government legislation restricts access to your super and is designed to ensure that you generally use your super for retirement.

Your super account may be comprised of three categories:

- Unrestricted non-preserved super benefits – this amount (if any) is the part of your super account balance that can be paid in cash at any time.
- Restricted non-preserved super benefits – you may have an amount of this type if you had superannuation prior to 1 July 1999. If you do and you leave your employer, this portion of your super account balance will become an unrestricted non-preserved amount.
- Preserved super benefits – these amounts must be kept in a superannuation fund or other approved superannuation arrangement and can only be accessed according to 'conditions of release' specified in superannuation law.

Your annual member statement will provide details about the relevant category for each portion of your super. Generally, contributions made to your superannuation account will be fully preserved and only accessible once you satisfy a 'condition of release' such as reaching age 65, ceasing an employment arrangement after age 60 or retiring after reaching age 60.

Contact the ATO for information about the amount you may be able to access under the FHSSS.

Paying your super before you leave your Employer

You can choose to take the unrestricted non-preserved component of your super as a cash payment at any time, however tax may be deducted. Call the Helpline if you want to use this option.

You may also be able to transfer all or part of your super account balance to another complying superannuation arrangement, before you leave your Employer, at any time.

If you wish to make a partial transfer this will generally be subject to maintaining a super account balance of at least $5,000 in your Plan.

For more information, see 'Taking a partial payout' in the 'Leaving your Employer or Plan' section later in this Booklet. In some cases, your death and disablement insurance can be affected by transfers out of your Plan. Refer to your Insurance booklet to see if this applies to you. You should maintain a sufficient account balance to cover any insurance premiums and fees, otherwise your insurance may be cancelled.

Paying your super if you leave Australia

You may be eligible to access your super and have it paid directly to you after you have left Australia as long as:

- You entered Australia on a temporary visa
- Your temporary visa has expired or been cancelled
- You are not an Australian or New Zealand citizen or an Australian permanent resident.

Call the Helpline for more details about:

- How to make an application to the trustee for the release of your super for the reasons listed above
- What will happen to your super if you make such an application.

The trustee may be required to transfer your super to the ATO if at least six months have passed since the expiry or cancellation of your temporary visa and you have left Australia and have not claimed your super from your Plan.

If this happens, you will need to contact the ATO to claim your super, which will be paid to you subject to the deduction of tax. The ATO will provide the trustee with details of the members who can have their super transferred in these circumstances.

Tax rates on super benefits to a temporary resident who has left Australia are higher than those which apply to Australian permanent residents or Australian and New Zealand citizens.

Interest (or investment earnings) in respect of super for temporary residents is not paid on amounts paid by the ATO (except in certain limited circumstances).

The transfer to the ATO can be required even if you are still employed by your Australian employer. Call the Helpline if your benefit has been transferred to the ATO and you need help to prove to the ATO that you are entitled to that benefit.

In most cases, the trustee is required to provide a member with an exit statement when their benefit has been paid out of the fund. However, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) has provided trustees with relief from this requirement where benefits are paid to the ATO. This relief has been granted because most temporary residents do not advise the trustee of their overseas address details. The trustee intends to rely on this relief.

This means that the trustee is not obliged to notify or give an exit statement to a non-resident where a benefit has been transferred to the ATO.

You will no longer be a member of Mercer Super or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease if your super is transferred to the ATO.

Unclaimed money

We will consider your super benefit as unclaimed money and send it to the ATO if:

- You are over age 65 and we have received no contributions or rollovers in the last two years, and
- We have been unable to contact you for a period of five years.

We may also be required to transfer your account balance to the ATO if:

- No contributions or rollovers have been received for more than 12 months, and
- We have not been able to contact you and your account balance is less than $6,000, or
- If we do not have enough information to properly identify you.

You will no longer be a member of Mercer Super or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease if your super is transferred to the ATO.

For more information on unclaimed super money please refer to the ATO website at ato.gov.au.

Unclaimed benefits – lost members

We may classify your super account as an unclaimed super benefit and transfer your super to the ATO if:

- We've written to you twice
- This mail has been returned unclaimed both times, and
- You are under age 65.

You will no longer be a member of Mercer Super or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease if your super is transferred to the ATO.

For more information on ATO-held super please refer to the ATO website at ato.gov.au.

Inactive low-balance accounts

To help protect members with low account balances of less than $6,000, we may be required to transfer your super account to the ATO for consolidation. This may occur if your account has been inactive for a continuous period of 16 months, has a balance of less than $6,000, does not hold current insurance cover and you have not opted out of having your super account transferred to the ATO.

Your super account will be deemed inactive, if within the last 16 months, all of the below statements are true:

- There have been no contributions and/or rollovers received
- You have not changed investment options
- You have not changed your binding beneficiaries
- You have not made a change to your insurance cover.

The process of determining accounts for ATO consolidation occurs on 30 June and 31 December each year.

You will no longer be a member of Mercer Super or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease if your super is transferred to the ATO.

A confirmation letter will be issued to you if your benefit is paid to the ATO.

You can opt out of having your super account transferred to the ATO by calling the Helpline.

Family law

Subject to relevant legislation, married and de facto couples may be able to make binding agreements or get court orders to determine how each partner's super will be divided if their marriage or relationship breaks down.

Under the Family Law Act 1975, the trustee needs to provide certain information about a member's super benefit to eligible persons where the information is required to negotiate a superannuation agreement or to help with a court order. An eligible person under the Act includes a member, the spouse of a member or any person who intends to enter into a superannuation agreement with the member for the purposes of splitting superannuation.

We may need to adjust your super benefit to reflect any agreements or court orders that may be binding on the trustee. We will advise you about any fee for a request related to the Family Law Act 1975 in respect of your super benefit.

Call the Helpline about family law matters affecting your super in Mercer Super.

Anti-money laundering

Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act), superannuation funds have to identify, monitor and mitigate the risk that the fund may be used for the laundering of money or the financing of terrorism. Because of this, you will be asked to provide satisfactory proof of your identity to the trustee before you withdraw your super benefit. You may also need to provide satisfactory proof of identity to meet other legal requirements.

At a minimum, we need to collect your full name (including any other names you are known by), date of birth and residential address, verified by acceptable independent documentation, such as a certified copy of your current identification documents – driver's licence, passport, a foreign national identity card or other supporting documents.

We are unable to process your payment without this information in an appropriate form.

Under the AML/CTF Act, we may need to undertake additional identification checks and monitor transactions. We may also need to block or suspend transactions. The trustee will not be liable for any loss suffered by you due to a delay in making a payment which has been caused by the need to comply with AML/CTF Act requirements.

By law the trustee is also required to comply with confidential reporting obligations to the AML/CTF Act regulator Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC).

How super is taxed

See the Contributions Fact Sheet at mercersuper.com.au/pds for more information on contributions and tax.

Superannuation is generally taxed at three stages:

- When certain contributions are received
- On investment income
- When super benefits are paid out.

Contributions limits and tax issues can be complex. We have provided a general summary of the way superannuation is taxed based on laws current at the date of this Booklet.

The information applies to Australian or New Zealand citizens or Australian permanent residents. If you are an Australian or New Zealand citizen or an Australian permanent resident but are currently not a resident of Australia for tax purposes, different tax rules will apply.

Visit the ATO website for further information about tax and your super (ato.gov.au).

Tax on contributions

Not all the money you put into super will be taxed when it is paid into the fund. It depends on:

- The type of contribution – concessional or non-concessional
- How much you contribute and whether you exceed the super contribution limits (caps)
- If the trustee has your TFN
- Whether you are a high-income earner.

If you roll in super from an untaxed Australian public sector fund, any untaxed element of the rollover will be taxed at 15%. Tax at 15% may also apply to a component of an amount transferred from a foreign super fund, with the tax-free part treated as a non-concessional contribution.

Type of contribution

Concessional contributions are generally taxed at 15% when received by a super fund. Allowance for this tax is deducted from your super account and is calculated as 15% of your net concessional contributions after relevant insurance premiums are deducted.

Non-concessional contributions are generally tax-free when received by a super fund.

Where you make a personal after-tax contribution and then claim a tax deduction, this contribution will then be re-classified as a concessional contribution.

Contribution caps

There are limits on how much you can pay into your super fund each financial year without having to pay extra tax. If you have more than one super fund, all your contributions are added up and count towards your caps. If you exceed the caps, you may pay additional tax. You should monitor your contributions to ensure that you do not exceed the caps and are then liable for additional tax.

No Tax File Number

The trustee is authorised to collect, use and disclose your TFN. You do not have to provide your TFN to us and it is not an offence if you choose not to provide it. However, if we do not have your TFN:

- You will pay extra tax on employer contributions, salary sacrifice contributions and possibly on your super benefit
- We cannot accept your voluntary contributions (including any spouse contributions)
- We will be unable to consolidate multiple super accounts you may have with us.

We may disclose your TFN to another super provider if your benefits are being transferred, unless you request us in writing that your TFN is not to be disclosed to any other super provider.

High-income earners

If your combined income and concessional super contributions are more than $250,000 in a financial year, you may have to pay Division 293 tax on your contributions.

Tax on investment income

Generally, the trustee is liable to pay tax at a maximum rate of 15% on:

- All investment income
- Realised capital gains from assets held for less than 12 months
- Two-thirds of realised capital gains from assets held for 12 months or more.

A realised capital gain is when an asset is actually sold for more than the original purchase price.

The trustee won't be liable to pay tax on gains received from Mercer Super investments in pooled super trusts and statutory funds of life insurance companies. This is because the pooled super trust or life office would have already deducted tax.

The actual rate at which the trustee pays tax may be reduced below 15% due to the effect of various tax credits (including franking credits) and rebates.

See the Mercer Direct Member Guide at mercersuper.com.au/pds for information about tax for super invested in the Mercer Direct investment option.

Tax on super benefits

You may have to pay tax on your super benefit when it is paid from Mercer Super. The actual amount of tax you may have to pay depends on:

- Your age when your super benefit is paid
- The type of benefit and its tax components
- Some other factors including your residency and citizenship status.

Super benefits for Australian or New Zealand citizens or an Australian permanent resident are generally:

- Tax free when paid from age 60 (although tax may be payable on some death and Income Protection benefits and FHSSS releases)
  - Taxable when paid before age 60.

See the Tax on lump sum super payouts Fact Sheet at mercersuper.com.au/pds for more information about tax on lump sum super benefits.

We recommend that you get advice from a licensed or appropriately authorised financial adviser about how the tax laws affect you, especially if you are considering making large contributions, or retiring. This is because the tax treatment of super can be complex and may change at any time.

You should also get appropriate advice while you build your super.

Leaving your Employer or Plan

This section includes information about what generally happens to your benefits and insurance cover when you leave your Employer or your Plan.

You have accumulation style super. Your super account balance is made up of:

- Amounts contributed to your account by you or your Employer or in respect of you

plus

- Any money you transfer in from other super funds

less

- Taxes and surcharges, fees and costs, expenses, insurance premiums and amounts paid out to or for you

plus

- Investment earnings (which can be positive or negative).

Your annual member statement explains how your super has performed throughout the previous year.

Leaving your Plan

If you are a Corporate member, once you finish working for your Employer, you may be able to stay a member of your Plan as a Retained member. You will cease to be a Corporate or Retained member of the Plan if your whole super account is transferred to another approved superannuation arrangement or paid out of the Plan to you.

Exercising Choice

Generally, most employees are able to choose which super fund their employer contributions are paid into. Your Employer should provide you with a Choice of fund form when you commence employment with them which includes details of your Employer's nominated default super fund.

Although you can join your Plan by choice, in the CSD we use the terms 'Exercise Choice' and 'Exercising Choice' to cover the situation where, after joining your Plan, you advise your Employer to make contributions to another super fund.

If you become a member of Mercer Super and then Exercise Choice, your Employer will need to notify the trustee of the date it first remitted contributions to your chosen fund. This will be your Effective Date.

The trustee will then write to you and notify you that membership of your Plan will cease.

You could permanently lose valuable insurance rights if you become a member of Mercer Super and then Exercise Choice.

If you re-join your Plan after Exercising Choice, you may be eligible for default insurance cover without underwriting subject to meeting the terms, conditions and exclusions of the Plan.

You should seek advice from a licensed or appropriately authorised financial adviser before making any decision.

Leaving your Employer

Depending on your circumstances, you will have different options when you leave your Employer:

- If you are changing jobs and haven't reached your retirement age, some or all of your super may have to stay invested in a super fund until you retire.
- If you:
  - Are retiring permanently from work, and
  - Have reached your preservation age, and
  - Are an Australian citizen; or a New Zealand citizen; or an Australian permanent residentyou can receive your super in cash or can roll it over to another fund, including a transition to retirement or pension fund (if eligible).

The trustee will process your super payout once it receives notice that you have left your Employer and that all contributions due for you have been paid into Mercer Super. Please note that if your account is closed before we have received this notice from your Employer and we receive further employer contributions, then we may have to open a new account for you and we will notify you.

For more information about what happens if you are a Corporate member and you leave your Employer or Exercise Choice, see 'Super account balance of at least $500' and 'Super account balance under $500' in this section.

Retiring from the workforce

If you are retiring from the workforce or transitioning to retirement, the Mercer SmartRetirement Income product provides both allocated pension and transition to retirement allocated pension accounts. These accounts can provide you with regular income from your super savings when you are approaching retirement or have fully retired.

See the Mercer SmartRetirement Income PDS at mercersuper.com.au/pds or call the pension Helpline on 1800 671 369 for more information.

Super account balance under $500

You must notify the trustee where you would like us to transfer your super account balance if you Exercise Choice or leave your Employer and your super account balance is less than $500 (on the date we process your benefit).

When requested, you need to tell us where you would like us to transfer your super account balance, within 30 days. This can be your new employer's super fund or another approved superannuation arrangement. You may take in cash any unrestricted non-preserved amounts.

If we do not hear from you within 30 days, we may transfer your super account balance to the ATO. Once your benefit is transferred to the ATO, you will no longer be a member of Mercer Super or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease.

A confirmation letter will be issued to you if your benefit is paid to the ATO.

Super account balance of at least $500

If you are a Corporate member, unless you have provided us with your completed payment instructions, we will generally automatically transfer your super to the Retained category of your Plan if you leave your Employer, and your super account balance is worth at least $500 (on the date we process your benefit).

Detailed below are the key features of the Retained category:

- Fees and costs may be higher than those which applied before you were transferred to the Retained category (see the 'Fees and costs' section earlier in this Booklet)
- Your super will continue to be invested in the same investment options (including Mercer Direct<sup>1</sup> that your super was invested before you were transferred to the Retained category (call the Helpline for details)
- Available investment options (including Mercer Direct) will remain the same as those available before you were transferred to the Retained category and you'll be able to switch the investment options applicable to your super at any time
- Non-preserved benefits can be taken in cash and/or you can transfer amounts to other approved superannuation arrangements, provided your super account balance remains above $500
- You can rollover amounts from other approved superannuation arrangements
- Your subsequent employer or any other person can make contributions for you and you can make after-tax contributions too
- Any preferred beneficiary or binding death benefit nomination that applied before you were transferred to the Retained category will continue to apply in that category
- You must maintain a super account balance of at least $500 at all times*.

Insurance cover in your Plan

Any Death, Death and TPD or IP cover that you had at the time you were transferred to the Retained category will generally automatically continue when you transfer subject to meeting eligibility requirements.

You will need to pay for any insurance cover you have in the Retained category. Premiums will be deducted monthly from your super account and will generally be higher than what applied before you were transferred to the Retained category. Any restrictions, exclusions or premium loading that applied to your insurance cover will continue in the Retained category. Refer to the Insurance booklet applicable to your Plan for more information.

* On an annual basis, the Plan's administrator will notify you if your super account balance falls below $500. If this happens, you can either increase your super account balance (by making a contribution or a transfer to your account), or you will need to provide written instructions for the payment of your super account balance from the Plan.

If your super account balance is not increased to at least $500 or written payment instructions are not provided by you within 30 days of receiving notification from the Plan's administrator of your account falling below the prescribed minimum, then the trustee may transfer your super account balance to the ATO.

Once your benefit is transferred to the ATO: you will no longer be a member of Mercer Super; or have any right to claim a benefit from the fund and any insurance cover you may have had through your Plan will cease.

A confirmation letter will be issued to you if your benefit is paid to the ATO.

You will cease to be a Retained member of the Plan if your whole super account is transferred to another approved superannuation arrangement or paid out of the Plan to you.

It is recommended that you speak to a licensed, or appropriately authorised, financial adviser regularly to assess whether your investment and/or your insurance options in the Retained category continue to suit your personal needs and circumstances.

Taking a partial payout

You may be able to access your unrestricted non-preserved component of your super at any time as a cash payment. Your member statement will show if you have any such unrestricted non-preserved amounts.

The trustee may require that your super account balance remains above $5,000 for Corporate members and $500 for Retained members. For Corporate members, where the minimum balance will fall below $5,000 as a result of a partial payment, then the full balance may have to be withdrawn and your account may be closed.

You may also apply to have all or part of your super account balance rolled over to another complying superannuation arrangement (subject to maintaining a minimum account balance (as applicable) if you are making a partial withdrawal).

Contact the Helpline for more details on taking a partial payout.

Looking for financial advice?

Call 1800 702 993 to speak to a Mercer financial adviser if you are leaving your Plan and need financial advice.

<sup>1</sup> If any part of your super is invested in the Mercer Direct investment option, your Mercer Direct investments will not change and will be automatically transferred to your membership in the Retained category of the Plan - you do not need to do anything for this to occur.

Other key information

Beneficiaries

It's important to let us know who you would prefer to receive your death benefit if you die while a member of Mercer Super. Reviewing and updating your beneficiary nomination may ensure that your benefit can be paid according to your nomination.

For more information about nominating beneficiaries, see the Beneficiaries Fact Sheet available from mercersuper.com.au/pds.

Insufficient super

If your super account balance is, or is likely to be, insufficient to meet the cost of your insurance premiums and/or fees, your insurance cover will cease. If your super account balance is, or is likely to be, insufficient to meet the fees for your account, you will no longer be able to remain a member of Mercer Super. These changes will occur automatically unless you make a further contribution to meet the cost of your insurance cover and account fees. We will advise you if this applies to you.

Representing members' interests

If your Plan has a policy committee, the names of policy committee representatives and dates of when their terms expire will be published in a supplement to the Mercer Super Trust Annual Report (Fund Information Statement) to members.

A policy committee comprises an equal number of member and employer representatives.

The policy committee represents members of your Plan in all dealings with the trustee of Mercer Super. The policy committee is a communications channel to the trustee for any member issues and concerns.

Call the Helpline for information about policy committee election rules.
